

"Development Dispatch" weekly update from Metro's development services departments,
November 6, 2009

Saturday free parking downtown may end

Meter parking downtown has been free on weekends since 2003 – but that could change. Next Monday, Nov. 9, the Traffic and Parking Commission will consider going back to pay parking on Saturdays.

Details and meeting agenda

Northeast Corridor Mobility Study public meetings begin Nov. 9

The Nashville Area Metropolitan Planning Organization will hold public meetings in Gallatin, Madison, Goodlettsville, Hendersonville, and East Nashville in November to discuss transportation improvements and possible future development along the Nashville-Gallatin corridor.

Schedule and details

Planning Commission will consider Downtown Code Nov. 12

That proposed Code would promote community-building and new development opportunities downtown – it's going to the Commission at next Thursday's regular meeting.

Details and the draft code

# #

Questions or comments:
Craig Owensby – Public Information Officer, Metro Planning Dept.
(615)862-7192
craig.owensby@nashville.gov

Planning Commission agenda information line: 880-1006